

2021-1-LT01-KA220-HED000030285

THE APATCHE MULTIPLIER EVENT

THE APATCHE PROJECT OBJECTIVES, MODULES, STRUCTURE, AND ACHIEVEMENTS TO DATE

Venue: Centre for Foreign Language Teacher Training and European Education of the University of Warsaw, Al. Niepodległości 22, 02-653 Warszawa

FRIDAY, 17th March 2023

10.30 - 11.00 REGISTRATION

10.30 - 11.00 Tea and coffee served

THE APATCHE MULTIPLIER EVENT PROGRAMME

11.00-11.20	Welcome to participants: Danuta Romaniuk – director of Centre for Foreign Language Teacher Training and European Education of the University of Warsaw Introducing the APATCHE project by the project management team: Vilma Bijeikienė & Nemira Mačianskienė (Vytautas Magnus University, Kaunas)
11.20-12.10	The APATCHE Descriptive scale of plurilingual teacher competence in higher education, as a tool for professional growth: What, Why, and How - Kris Peeters (University of Antwerp) The APATCHE survey: some data on HE teachers' knowledge (What), awareness and attitudes (Why), and skills (How) - Jim Ureel (University of Antwerp)
12.10-13.00	What? Module. What do I have to know to develop plurilingual approaches in language teaching – course syllabus: Silvia Gilardoni, Maria Vittoria Lo Presti, and Luisa Sartirana (Catholic University of Sacred Heart, Milan)
13.00-14.30	Lunch
14.30-15.10	Why? Module. Why do I have to be aware of plurilingual approaches in language teaching? – project results, work in progress: Manuel Celio Conceição, and Pedro Sousa (University of Algrave, Portugal)
15.10-15.30	How? Module – How to deal with plurilingual approaches in language teaching - project results, work in progress: Joanna Fituła, Anna Murkowska, Jacek Romaniuk (the University of Warsaw)
15.30-16.30	How? Module. Plurilingual didactics. Providing sample materials of the planned 6-hour practical course for language and CLIL teachers in HEIs. Workshop run by Radosław Kucharczyk (the University of Warsaw)
16.30-17.00	Coffee break
17.00- 18.00	Panel discussion